

The Native Alaskan Sleddog created by Kim Marsch for the Alaskan 2013 IFSS Winter World Championship

Kim created this dog to represent the artistic expression of the Alaskan Indian. This shirt was well received by the Native community in Alaska at the World Championship for its authentic look.

We put her design on a Dri-Balance long sleeve shirt by Zorrel.

A double layer fabric, structured to create air pockets to move moisture away from your body, allows air to pan through, keeping you cool, dry and comfortable. Order in XXL-XS in gray or red. Limited quantities! Only 100 shirts are left!
